This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2000 in the subject History Europe - Germany - World War I, Weimar Republic, printed single-sided, grade: 1,0, University of Sussex, language: English, abstract: Throughout World War I, almost 15 million people lost their lives; as one of its consequences, the Austrian-Hungarian, Russian and Turkish Empires fell apart, and the old internal and international order was for ever destroyed. Owing to the fact that the First World War marked the beginning of an entire new era, the investigation of its origins still remains a controversial historical issue. While some historians put the emphasis on the primacy of domestic policies and assert that internal pressures conditioned the decisions of the belligerent states, others maintain the concept of the 19th century German historical scientist Ranke, who stressed the importance of foreign affairs on the authorities motivations leading to the Great War . 16 pp. Englisch.
