College and careers separate them for two years. Their reunion is supposed to take place on the happiest day of Phoebe's life, her wedding day. However it never comes to pass. Lucy is shot to death at an international airport. The police declares her a victim of a terrorist-act. Her best friends however don't believe that. They are determined to find Lucy's true murderer. Despite relationship trouble, a pregnancy and grief, J-J and Phoebe don't stop talking to Lucy's last friends, reading her diaries and making logical conclusions. The search for truth and justice brings them into more than one dangerous and challenging situation. In the course of their investigation they discover many surprising facts about their best friend, who seems like a stranger at times. They enter the scene of Satanists, hard-rock bands and run-down drug-dens all for the sake of truth and friendship.
