In the early years the museum was in the same room with the library. Now they are separate. In 1888-89 a reading room was established open three hours each week day free to all in the college, but in 1894-95 this was combined with the library under one attendant. In 1887-88 the library moved into the new college building on the third floor. It is supported by annual appropriations, by the synod, and by students fees. It also receives many gifts from publishers and from the Students union. The hours of opening have steadily increased. Rock Island Arsenal (31 Dec. 1904) 1300 vols 27 period The Post library was founded in 1880 and now consists of 1300 volumes. The library has no fixed income, but books are bought from time to time from the profits of the Post exchange. Periodicals are bought by the Ordnance detachment and the Quartermaster s department. The library is for the use of the officers and enlisted men at the Post and is very freely used.
